Kristen Kelly (Nashville, TN) is a contemporary country artist/songwriter from Lorena, TX. Her music can be best described as country with a bit more grease than polish. She cut her teeth playing 150-180 dates a year or more on the TX/Red Dirt scene before signing with SONY ARISTA Nashville in 2011 and moving to TN. A member of CMT's Next Women of Country, Kelly has graced the stage of the Grand Ole Opry and toured with many of Country Music's biggest names including Brad Paisley, Rascal Flatts, Alan Jackson, Sheryl Crow, The Band Perry, Gary Allan, Jake Owen and more. Her first top 30 single "Ex-Old Man" (2012) made history when it went for adds at country radio and was the number one most added song to debut for a female artist. Kristen continued to garner the attention of radio and fans with her bluesy ballad love song titled "He Loves To Make Me Cry". Kristen's EP "FIRE" was released on June 9th, 2015. The FIRE EP, along with the current title-track single, is available on iTunes now! www.kristenkellymusic.com

Jimmy Stanley (Nashville, TN) is an American country music singer/songwriter from Eustis, Florida. He grew up there on rural road CR. 44a. He spent most of his childhood training horses on his parents horse farm. Jimmy attended Florida State University where he began to visualize a path in music, playing small clubs around Tallahassee before making the move to Nashville in 2005. Upon his arrival to Music City he immediately got a job at the world famous BlueBird Cafe where he studied some of the greatest songwriters and learned how a song was crafted. Jimmy has shared the stage with artists such as Sam Hunt, Tony Arata, Ronnie Milsap and more. In 2012 he landed a featured role on ABC's Nashville which later turned into a speaking role. Shortly thereafter he was cast for the soft scripted reality show called CrazyHearts Nashville on the network A&E. After the first season Jimmy returned to touring and released his debut single "Say You Want Me" on SiriusXM's The Highway in 2015. His follow-up single, "Like I Stole It" is available now. Dylan Sheppard (Nashville, TN) is a singer/songwriter, TX born, MS raised, and a resident of several cities across the South who takes influences from anywhere they present themselves. From the dry nature of Red Dirt to the rich culture of the Deep South, Dylan is inspired by artists such as John Prine, Guy Clark, Ray Charles and Tom Waits. An advocate of space and brut honesty, his songs highlight the human condition in a way reminiscent of another time. A natural storyteller. A troubadour. Dylan has recently released his first full record of material entitled "Dirt", recorded and mixed analog using a four track reel to reel; a record that is stripped and candid. With a background in classical cello and jazz guitar and a love of country and folk music, no genre is off limits.
